Information and Exemption Form (FLE) (Family Life Education) (FLE) 2018-2019. FLE is designed to provide students with information and knowledge to make decisions about their personal and family life. FLE helps students to understand the importance of healthy relationships, sexual health, and reproductive health. FLE also helps students to learn about the importance of family life, the role of parents, and the responsibilities of being a parent. FLE also helps students to learn about the importance of family life, the role of parents, and the responsibilities of being a parent.

The Alexandria City Public Schools (ACPS) provides information and resources to students and parents to support their educational and personal development. The FLE program is designed to help students make informed decisions about their personal and family life. FLE is available in both English and multiple languages. FLE also includes information on substance use, alcohol use, and smoking. FLE also includes information on substance use, alcohol use, and smoking.

To provide parents with information and resources, ACPS has developed the Information and Exemption Form. The form includes information on FLE, the FLE program, and how to opt-out of FLE. The form also includes information on how to request information and resources in multiple languages.

The Information and Exemption Form is available on the ACPS website and is also provided during Parent-Teacher Conferences. ACPS encourages parents to review the form and provide feedback to ACPS.

If you have any questions or concerns about FLE, please contact ACPS at (703) 619-8020. ACPS is committed to providing students with the best possible educational experience.
