

PERSONNEL TRAINING - VIRAL INFECTIONS

All school personnel having direct contact with students receive appropriate training in the etiology, prevention, transmission modes, and effects of bloodborne pathogens, specifically, the hepatitis B and human immunodeficiency viruses or any other infections that are the subject of regulations promulgated by the Safety and Health Codes Board of the Virginia Occupational Safety and Health Program within the Department of Labor and Industry.

Adopted: July 10, 1997
Affirmed: April 21, 2016
Amended: April 22, 2021

Legal Ref: Code of Virginia, § 22.1-271.3.

Cross Refs:	EBAB/GBEE	Reporting of Possible Exposure to Viral Infections
	JHCC	Communicable Diseases
	JHCCA	Bloodborne Contagious or Infectious Diseases